

AIFD Northwest Region Scholarship Application

Do you know someone who would benefit from attending Symposium but needs some financial assistance? The AIFD Northwest Region Scholarship awards one recipient $1000 to be used towards the registration fee and expenses (his/her transportation, food and lodging costs) for the AIFD National Symposium.

Join us for

Revolution

The AIFD National Symposium
Boston, Massachusetts July 3-8, 2010

Application Eligibility:

- Must be currently active in the floral industry or a student of floral design
- be a non-AIFD designer
- only individuals who have not attended an AIFD National Symposium will be considered
- Individuals already approved for AIFD induction will not be considered.

Scholarship application must be complete and received before midnight (April 01, 2010)

Send to: J. Paul Jaras AIFD
1524 Child Avenue NE
Calgary AB T2E 5E4
Canada
Email to: jaras@shaw.ca

Name: _____

Address: _____

City _____ State/Prov _____ Zip/Postal Code _____

Phone: _____ Alternate Phone: _____ Email: _____

Education:

Why did you decide on a career in the Floral Industry?

Floral Design Employment Experience:

Describe your short term and long term career goals in the Floral Industry and as a member of AIFD.

Have you attended AIFD and/or other Floral Industry Events? (Please specify):

Why do you feel you should receive this scholarship?